Personal Philosophy

"My philosophy toward my job as well as my personal life is simple; be accountable. For most, being accountable is predicated on being informed. Most of us hope to "do the right thing" by making the right decision. I want my clients to be accountable to their customers because they "do the right thing" by making an informed decision."

Expert Qualifications

- 20 year career in the construction industry focused on the building envelope.
- Completed Tremco's comprehensive Construction Technology Training phases B and D.
- Member of CSI and past Chapter President.
- USAR primary leadership development course.
